

Heimdalen seminar

Tøyen Hovedgård, 28 March 2017, 11.30-15.30

- 11.30-12.00. Light lunch
- 12.00- 12.15. Introduction. Fridtjof Mehlum, NHM
- 12.15-12.30. Looking back on the last 50 years in Heimdalen. John Brittain, NHM
- 12.30-12.55. 100 years of tree- and forest line changes in eastern Jotunheimen. Anders Bryn, NHM
- 12.55-13.20. Paleolimnological investigations based on sediment samples from lake Øvre Heimdalsvatn: long-distance transport of air pollution and trophic development. Åse Helene Vrålstad, NMBU
- 13.20-13.45. Long-term trends in water temperature and ice cover for lake Øvre Heimdalsvatn. Ånund Kvambekk, NVE
- 13.45-14.00. Coffee break
- 14.00-14.25. Status of the aquatic vegetation in lake Øvre Heimdalsvatn - have there been changes during the last 50 years? Marit Mjelde, NIVA
- 14.25-14.50. Major changes in the trout population after introduction of minnows in lake Øvre Heimdalsvatn. Reidar Borgstrøm, NMBU
- 14.50-15.15. Three decades of bird research in Øvre Heimdalen - what have we learnt about bird sex? Jan T. Lifjeld, NHM
- 15.15-15.30. Summary and future prospects. Arild Johnsen, NHM